

Extend Your IBM i Investment Runway

If you're struggling to find knowledgeable and experienced support for your IBM i and AIX-based systems, you may be wondering, "Is it because IBM is coming to its own end of life?"

The answer is a solid "NO!"

IBM is flying high

In fact, according to an IBM i Marketplace Survey¹:

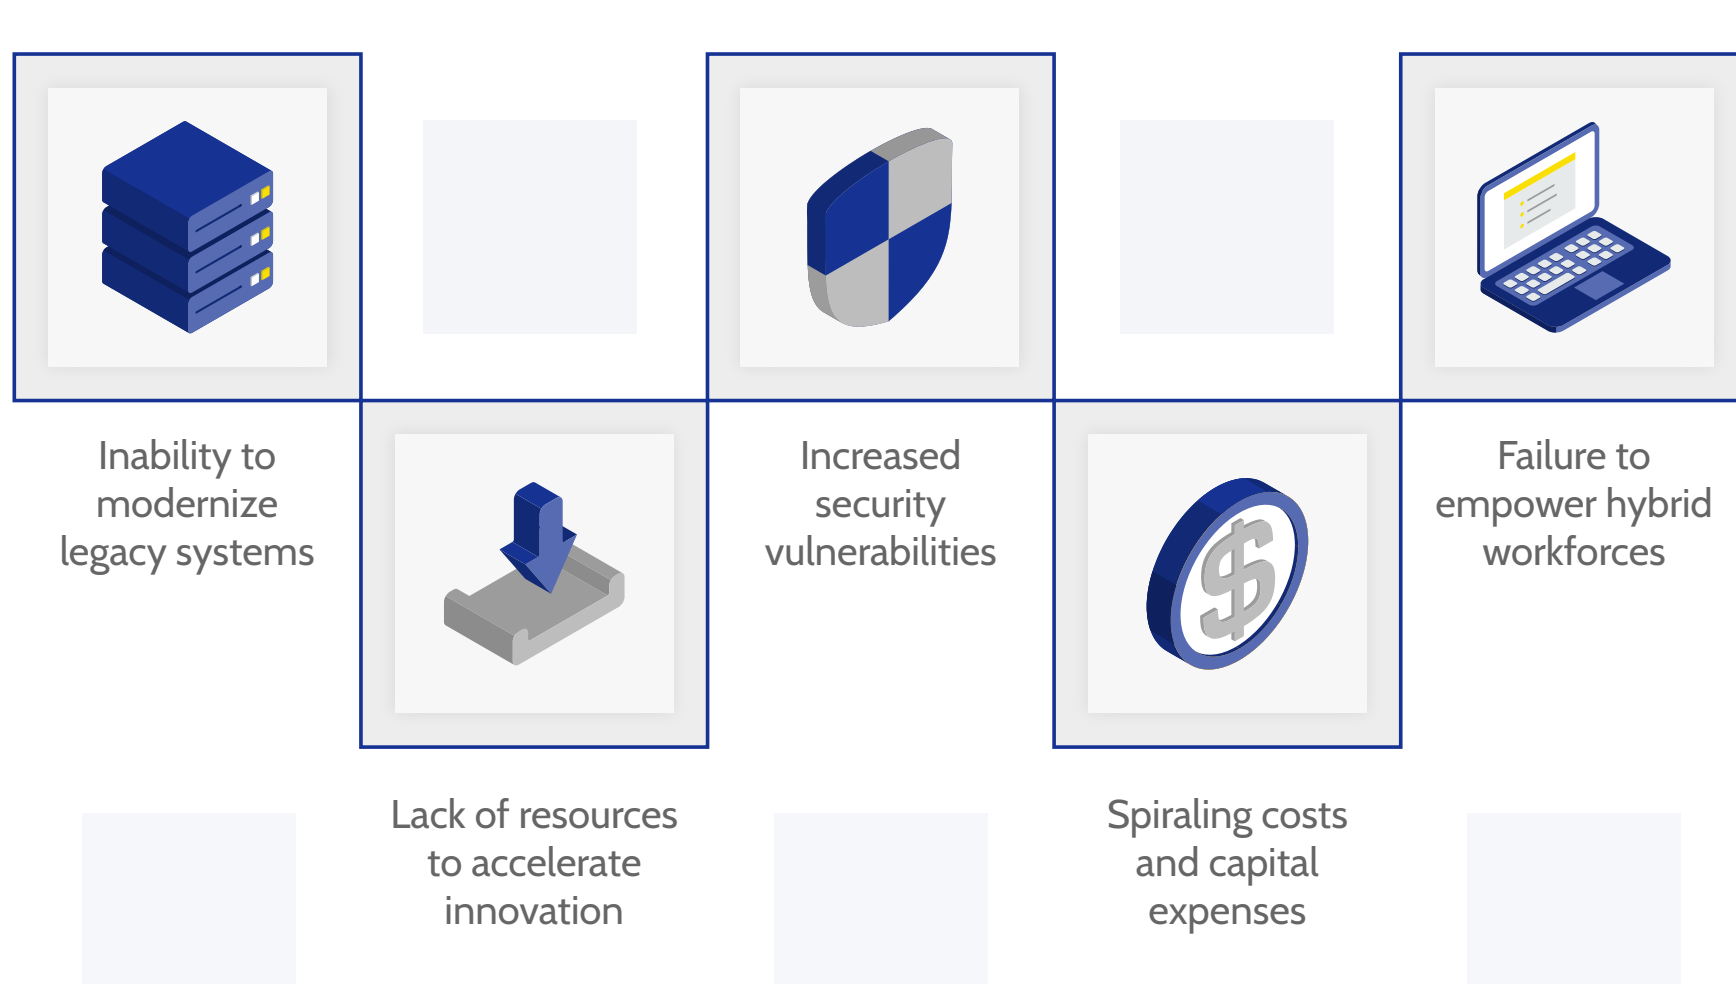

70% Use IBM i to run more than half of their core business applications.

95% Believe their IBM i server gives them better ROI than other servers.

We're at a talent crossroads

1. Veteran, experienced technology workers are retiring
2. Next-gen techs are focused on cloud, mobile, and automation

This leads to:
